Servair and Flying Food Group announce a strengthening of their partnership in France and the US.

Paris and Chicago, 11 October 2010 - Following a strengthening of ties with the opening of a joint facility at New York JFK last November, Servair and Chicago based Flying Food Group have reorganised their activities into one company, Flying Food Servair USA, which brings together joint operations in Chicago, Miami, New York, San Francisco and Seattle.

This holding company is owned by Flying Food Group (51%) and Servair (49%) and is the basis for development in the US.

Servair has also announced the investment of Sue Gin, Founder and CEO of Flying Food Group, in the capital of Servair, with a stake of 2.5%.

Sue Gin is on the board of Servair SA.

Flying Food Group is a major player in the US catering market and was founded by Sue Gin in 1983.

Servair and Flying Food Group have been partners for over twenty years.

SERVAIR is the leading French airline catering and cleaning company. In 3rd position worldwide with more than 60 sites, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services that are vital to the air transport sector and for the comfort of passengers. Its requirements, in terms of quality and know-how, have led to SERVAIR becoming a true driving force for its 120 customer companies, helping them to improve their commercial offers to passengers, while scrupulously adhering to the constraints of air transport.

Flying Food Group (FFG) is a leading producer of custom prepared foods, with 2009 revenues exceeding $300 million. FFG services over 55 airline customers – primarily international – from 17 US kitchens and one in Shanghai, China. FFG also supplies meals and snacks to retail partners, including over 4200 US Starbucks cafes. FFG is currently introducing a line of direct retail products, produced fresh in its US kitchens. FFG has over 3000 employees worldwide, and is the U.S. Department of Commerce Minority Business Development Agency's Minority Global Supplier Distributer of the year (2010)
