Franck Bouat is made International Sales Director of Servair.

Paris, 10 June 2010 - Servair, the French leader and third-ranking global player in air transport catering and logistics, is pleased to announce a new addition to its sales management team.

Franck Bouat has taken over as head of the International Sales division.

After 16 years with the company, initially within the sales division, then overseeing our operating sites, Mr Bouat has extensive experience in the field of catering and international sales. Mr Bouat and his team will have the task of consolidating and developing the international network, strengthening our offers and rolling out new and complementary services.

Reporting to Claude Thenevin, Executive vice-president for Sales, Marketing and Innovation, Mr Bouat shall work alongside Véronique Michel, Marketing and Sales Director for France, who is also responsible for airport assistance and service integration offers (oenological offer, onboard services, etc.).

SERVAIR is the leading French airline catering and cleaning company. In 3rd position worldwide with more than 60 sites, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services that are vital to the air transport sector and for the comfort of passengers. Its requirements, in terms of quality and know-how, have led to SERVAIR becoming a true driving force for its 120 customer companies, helping them to improve their commercial offers to passengers, while scrupulously adhering to the constraints of air transport.
