

Servair announces the creation of its new unit in Ghana.

Paris, 2 March 2011 – Servair, the French leader and third ranking global player in air transport catering and logistics, announces the creation of a new airline catering unit in Accra, Ghana.

Servair creates a joint venture with its partner GACL (Ghana Airports Company Limited, which operates the Accra airport) and another local partner, to open a new catering unit, Servair Ghana, at Kotoka airport. Servair, as a major shareholder, will manage the unit. This new unit will enable Servair to operate in a dynamic airport with strong economic growth.

The new unit should be operational mid-2011 and will be located in a strategic position on a dynamic platform, thereby guaranteeing closeness and good responsiveness to its clients' needs.

With modern tools and covering a surface area of 2000sq.m., the unit will be organised in such a way as to optimise the production area to reach a capacity of 4000 services/day.

With this new venture in Ghana, Servair is reaffirming its position as Africa's leading caterer with a total of 16 units: Accra in Ghana, Bamako in Mali, Dakar in Senegal, Douala in Cameroon, Libreville in Gabon, Lomé in Togo, Nouakchott in Mauritania, Ouagadougou in Burkina Faso, Abidjan in the Ivory Coast, Lagos in Nigeria, Cotonou in Benin, Nairobi and Mombasa in Kenya, Brazzaville and Pointe Noire in the Congo.

SERVAIR is the leading French airline catering and cleaning company. In 3rd position worldwide with more than 60 sites, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services that are vital to the air transport sector and for the comfort of passengers. Its requirements, in terms of quality and know-how, have led to SERVAIR becoming a true driving force for its 120 customer companies, helping them to improve their commercial offers to passengers, while scrupulously adhering to the constraints of air transport.
