

Servair opens in Conakry

Paris, 21 March 2011 – Servair, the French leading and 3rd world player in air transport catering and logistics, announces the opening of a Duty-Free outlet and snack bar at Conakry's international G'BESSIA airport. This will be followed by a catering unit in October 2011.

Within the next few days, Conakry's international G'BESSIA airport will see a new Duty-free outlet and a snack-bar open in its boarding hall customs area.

Both new structures tie in with the airport's modernisation programme. They were built and will be run by Afrique Catering, a SERVAIR subsidiary, recognised for its expertise in on-board catering and connected services, in partnership with local players.

"Our diverse experience in the field and our long-standing presence on the African continent enable us to offer our services on all the dynamic and up-and-coming platforms. We are happy with this new partnership and our presence in the Republic of Guinea in activities that positively contribute to the image of the airport"; declared Patrick Alexandre, CEO of SERVAIR.

At the same time and within the same partnership, SERVAIR Guinea, a catering unit covering 450 sq.m., will open in October 2011 and will take advantage of a strategic location in a dynamic airport, thereby guaranteeing proximity and responsiveness to the needs of its clients.

With this new venture in the Republic of Guinea, Servair is reaffirming its position as Africa's leading caterer with a total of 17 units: Accra in Ghana, Bamako in Mali, Conakry in the Republic of Guinea, Dakar in Senegal, Douala in Cameroon, Libreville in Gabon, Lomé in Togo, Nouakchott in Mauritania, Ouagadougou in Burkina Faso, Abidjan in the Ivory Coast, Lagos in Nigeria, Cotonou in Benin, Nairobi and Mombasa in Kenya, Brazzaville and Pointe Noire in the Congo.

SERVAIR is the leading French airline catering and cleaning company. In 3rd position worldwide with more than 60 sites, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services that are vital to the air transport sector and for the comfort of passengers. Its requirements, in terms of quality and know-how, have led to SERVAIR becoming a true driving force for its 120 customer companies, helping them to improve their commercial offers to passengers, while scrupulously adhering to the constraints of air transport.
