Patrick Alexandre's role as SERVAIR's President and Chief Executive Officer has been extended for 4 years.

Paris, 17 June 2010 – The Board of Directors of SERVAIR, France's leading aircraft catering and aviation logistics company and the 3rd largest company in the sector worldwide, has extended Patrick Alexandre's presidency of the company for 4 years.

Patrick Alexandre joined SERVAIR in January 2008, and with the team of directors, initiated "SERVAIR Tomorrow", a major project to transform the company into one of the industry's major players, increasingly competitive in aircraft catering and aviation logistics core businesses. SERVAIR's business model is evolving with an offensive and integrated strategy in new markets while consolidating and developing its international network. SERVAIR relies on its human capital and is also committed to a sustainable development approach.

Patrick Alexandre, 55, graduated from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques and the Institut Supérieur des Affaires in Paris. He began his career in 1981 as a Junior Executive at the Banque Sudameris and then joined Air France in 1982 as Junior Executive in the Business Intelligence Department of the Scheduling Division. Two years later he was appointed Sales Manager for Italy before being made Personal Assistant to the Chairman in 1988. He then held various posts in international management before becoming, in 1998, Executive Vice President of International Sales, and held this position until his appointment with SERVAIR as President and Chief Executive Officer.

SERVAIR is the leading French airline catering and cleaning company. In 3rd position worldwide with more than 60 sites, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services that are vital to the air transport sector and for the comfort of passengers. Its requirements, in terms of quality and know-how, have led to SERVAIR becoming a true driving force for its 120 customer companies, helping them to improve their commercial offers to passengers, while scrupulously adhering to the constraints of air transport.
