

Honors for Servair

The magazine « Business Traveller » just rewarded Air France for the quality of its meals onboard its flights to the Americas, meals prepared by Servair.

The authoritative magazine "Business Traveller", German edition, distinguished Air France with the "Business Traveller Award", recognizing it as the best airline in the category "In-flight meal service on board flights to North and South America". This award was presented after conducting a survey among readers of the publication.

Servair prepares meals on-board Air France flights, and is delighted with this distinction which rewards its permanent efforts in favor of quality, because a journey, even for business, should always stay a pleasure and a meal tray can be an excellent ambassador of good taste.

Each year, it is over 45 million meals for 130 airlines that Servair serves with passion.
